Profile: Reiko Shimokawa/ Pianist

Reiko Shimokawa née Nakatsukasa received 2nd prize at the 8th Pacific Piano competition (Canada) in 2002, and the Yamaha Music Foundation Musical Activity Award (Japan) in 2001. Her concert appearances include the 'Debut' series on CBC Radio 2, a concerto with the Budapest Concert Orchestra, and a piano trio at the Mendelssohn Haus in Germany. After obtaining a Bachelor's degree from the Royal College of Music in the U.K, she moved to Canada to study with Prof. Bruce Vogt at University of Victoria in 1999, completing her Master's degree in 2001.

She received her Diploma at UBC in 2005 under the guidance of Prof. Lee Kum-Sing and Dr. Sara Davis Buechner. Reiko has taught at the Oakridge Music Studio and Music Academy Tokyo. Flutist Chieko and Reiko regularly collaborate with other artists, including performers from outside the traditional classical music field. Their concert with a Japanese traditional comic storyteller, "Rakugo and Classical Music", held in Vancouver in 2005, was very well received by the local audience.
